

Two Day Workshop on Vetting of B.Ed. (ODL) SLM

The Directorate of Distance Education, MANUU organized Two Day Workshop on Vetting of Bed (ODL) SLM from 16 February 2022 to 17th February 2022 was held at DDE Library at 10. am to 11.30 a.m. Thirty participants from Department of Education and CTE, MANUU were presented in the Programme. Honourable Pro-Vice Chancellor, Prof SM Rahmatullah inaugurated the programme and delivered the presidential remarks and outlined the objective ,importance and relevance of Two Day Workshop on Vetting of B.Ed(ODL) SLM. He shared his perspective on the significance of the workshop and its alignment with the broader goals of enhancing the quality of education in the institution. He also appreciated the work of Directorate of Distance Education, MANUU. Prof Rzaullah Khan, Director, Directorate of Distance Education extended a warm welcome to all participants, emphasizing the importance of the workshop in maintaining the quality of B. Ed (ODL) SLM.

Prof. Mohd. Mahmood Siddiqui address on Language Editing/Vetting. He provided insights into the critical role of language editing and vetting in ensuring clarity, coherence, and correctness in the B. Ed (ODL) SLM.

Prof. V. Venkaiah, Former Vice-Chancellor, Krishna University, Andhra Pradesh and Advisor, DDE, MANUU was speaker of the above workshop. He had presented a rosy picture on Distance Education. He emphasized the role and importance of ODL and quality standards of printed SLM. He highlighted the difference between outcome and output of learning. Prof. Venkaiah also discussed the established quality standards expected in printed SLM, highlighting the importance of adherence to these standards for effective learning outcomes. He also appreciated the work of Staff of DDE, MANUU.

Prof. Ramesh Ghanta address on Vetting of SLM. He highlighted the vetting process of SLM, explaining the steps involved and the criteria used to assess the quality and suitability of the materials.

Participants have asked several questions to the speaker regarding ODL programmes and quality of standard of printed SLM.

Prof. Najmus Saher , Convenor of workshop conducts the programme. Dr Abdul Basit and Mr Faheem, Guest Faculty of Distance Education were rapporteur. Dr Ishtiyaq Ahmad, Assistant Professor, Public Administration, Directorate of Distance Education proposed vote of thank.

The II Session started from 11.30 am to 1.00 pm on Discussion and Vetting of SLM in Groups. During this session; participants were divided into groups as per the assigned list to engage in discussions and vetting activities. Each group focused on specific aspects of the B. Ed (ODL) SLM, analyzing content, structure, language, and relevance to the curriculum.

Session III started from 2.0 pm to 5 pm on Discussion and Vetting of SLM in Groups. The discussions and vetting activities continued in the afternoon session, with participants actively collaborating within their groups to review and provide feedback on the SLM materials.

Emphasis was placed on identifying areas for improvement and making recommendations for enhancement.

Day 2: 17th February 2022

Session IV started from 10.00 am to 1.00 pm on Discussion and Vetting of SLM in Groups

On the second day of the workshop, participants continued for further discussions and vetting activities. The focus remained on ensuring thorough scrutiny and assessment of the B.Ed (ODL) SLM to uphold quality standards and meet the needs of learners effectively.

Session V started from 2.00 pm to 4.00 pm on Discussion and Vetting of SLM in Groups

In the final session, participants covered discussions and vetting activities, consolidating their findings and recommendations. Any remaining aspects were addressed, and efforts were made to finalize the vetting process to ensure comprehensive review and assessment.

The valedictory session started from 4.00 pm to 5.00 pm served as a platform to summarize the workshop proceedings and acknowledge the contributions of all stakeholders.

Prof. Mohd Raziullah Khan, Director, Directorate of Distance Education, MANUU, welcome the guest and participant and delivered closing remarks, reflecting on the significance of the workshop and its implications for the future development of B.Ed (ODL) programs.

Prof. Najmus Saher coordinator of workshop presented a comprehensive report summarizing the key discussions, outcomes, and recommendations emerging from the workshop.

Prof V. Vaneja, Director, Directorate of Admission, MANUU highlighted the importance of quality of standard of printed SLM.

The Honorable Registrar Prof. Sk Ishtiyahq Ahmad delivered presidential remarks of valedictory session of workshop and shared his perspective on the workshop outcomes and reiterated the institution's commitment to maintaining high-quality standards in education delivery.

Dr Ishtiyahq Ahmad, Assistant Professor, Public Administration, Directorate of Distance Education, convenor of workshop conducts the programme Dr. Abdul Basit , Guest Faculty, DDE extended sincere thanks to all participants, organizers, and stakeholders for their active involvement and valuable contributions throughout the workshop.