

Entrepreneurship orientation programme at MANUU ITI

Posted by Mohammed Hussain Published: January 07, 2020, 5:29 pm IST Read Time: 2 min

Ms. Shweta Narayan addressing. (L-R) Mr Mohammed Ameer, Dr. Mohammed Yousuf Khan, Mr. Mutyala Sarath and Dr Arshia Azam also seen.

Hyderabad: The Industrial Training Institute, Maulana Azad National Urdu University conducted Student Orientation Program on Entrepreneurship under PMYUVA scheme run by Ministry of Skill Development (MSDE) Govt. of INDIA in collaboration with Association of Lady Entrepreneur (ALEAP) INDIA, Hyderabad on January 6.

Dr. Mohammed Yousuf Khan, Principal, Polytechnic & Incharge Training and Placement Cell, MANUU in his opening remark advised the students to utilise the opportunity and come up with new innovative thoughts and ideas to become a young entrepreneur.

Mr. Mutyala Sarath, Program manager, Atal Incubation Centre, ALEAP Hyd, urged the students to develop their skills to establish their own business.

Ms. Shweta Narayan, Nodal manager, PMYUVA scheme of MSDE gave a brief description of the scheme. She encouraged the students to take an active part in one-week entrepreneurship program, going to be conducted after the orientation programme.

Earlier, Dr Arshia Azam, Principal ITI-MANUU, welcomed the gathering and said MANUU ITI Hyderabad is having good infrastructure facility and is selected among 24 ITI's for this unique pilot project.

Mr Mohammed Ameer, Instructor, Electronics Mechanic who is also the mentor for the scheme proposed vote of thanks. The programme concluded with National Anthem. A large number of ITI students and faculty members attended the programme.

Entrepreneurship orientation programme held at MANUU

By Author TelanganaToday

| Published: 7th Jan 2020

11:43 pm

Hyderabad: The Industrial Training Institute (ITI), Maulana Azad National Urdu University (MANUU) conducted Student Orientation Program on Entrepreneurship under PMYUVA scheme run by Ministry of Skill Development (MSDE), Government of India, in collaboration with Association of Lady Entrepreneur (ALEAP) India, Hyderabad.

Dr Mohammed Yousuf Khan, principal, Polytechnic and in-charge Training and Placement Cell, MANUU, in his opening remark, advised the students to utilise the opportunity and come up with new innovative thoughts and ideas to become young entrepreneurs. Program Manager, Atal Incubation Centre, ALEAP Hyderabad, Mutyala Sarath urged the students to develop their skills to establish their own business.

The nodal manager of PMYUVA scheme of MSDE, Shweta Narayan gave brief description of the scheme. She encouraged the students to take an active part in the one-week entrepreneurship programme, going to be conducted after the orientation programme.

Earlier, Dr Arshia Azam, Principal ITI-MANUU, welcomed the gathering and said MANUU ITI Hyderabad was having good infrastructure facility and was selected among 24 ITI's for this unique pilot project.