CIRCULAR

Swayamprabha is an important initiative of the Govt. of India for free online learning. The SWAYAM PRABHA is a group of 34 DTH channels devoted to telecasting of high-quality educational programmes of various disciplines of 24x7 basis allowing the students to choose the time of their convenience. The programmes can be watched at www.swayamprabha.gov.in.

Education Ministry and UGC have issued circulars to all institutions to create awareness about free education resources like SWAYAMPBHA and also reports have been asked about its usage by students and faculty members. IMC has already sent a communication in this regard to all departments.

All HODs are informed to make the best use of Swayamprabha programmes in teaching-learning at <https://www.swayamprabha.gov.in/>. Further, IMC has also installed two Swayamprabha broadcast facilities at its preview theatre and in the e-classroom which can be utilized by the teachers when a lockdown is over. It is available for the students and faculties to watch the SWAYAM PRABHA telecast as per the subjects need.

Recently, the Education Ministry has instructed all the institutions to send reports on usage of SWAYAMPBHA channel by the students and faculty members. Therefore, all HODs and faculty members are advised to introduce SWAYAMPBHA channel amongst their students. All Departments may ensure to forward a monthly report on the usage of SWAYAMPBHA channel by the students and faculty to IMC so that accumulated report of usage of the channel may be prepared and send to the Ministry.

Reports may be prepared in excel sheet format having information regarding (Use of SWAYAMPBHA by Students and Faculties and other Online digital mediums).

- Number and percentage of Students using Swayamprabha.
- Number and Percentage of Faculty using Swayamprabha.

A copy of the report may also be mailed to the Vice-Chancellor Peshi.
