Extension lecture on Animal Ethics at MANUU

Hyderabad:

The School of Sciences (Zoology), Maulana Azad National Urdu University organized an extension lecture on 12th March 2020.

Mr. Aditya S. K, a representative of Animal Ethics, an USA based Non-governmental organization working for the animal ethics and welfare delivered the lecture on “Welfare Biology and Animal Ethics” . The NGO provides information, promote discussion, debate issues in animal ethics and provide resources for animal advocates. It also offers internship and research funding.

Mr. Aditya in his talk spoke about speciesism and suffering of the wild animals due to various natural and man made factors. He expressed concern over the suffering of the animals and emphasized on the mitigating measures and supporting rescue of animals in need. He requested the interested students to approach the organization for internships or for research funding.

The lecture was attended by students, research scholars and faculty members of school of sciences, MANUU.

Bazm-e-Adab launched at MANUU

Hyderabad:

The Department of Urdu, Maulana Azad National Urdu University launched Bazm-e-Adab (Literary Academic and Cultural Body of Students) on March 12.

Eminent writer, Critic, Prof. Beg Ehsas, Former Head, Dept. of Urdu, University of Hyderabad while addressing the inaugural session, said that Bazm-e-Adab will not only nurture students’ multi-faceted talents, but will also create a spark in their language and expression. They will be familiar with the usage of proper words and it’s pronunciation. Reading is essential for learning how to write. Students must study the well known writers of the genre in which they want to write, he advised. To become a successful writer or poet, in depth study and practice are the basic prerequisites, he added.

Prof. Mohammad Naseemuddin Farees, Head, Department and Dean, School of Languages, Linguistics and Indology delivered the welcome address.

Students presented poetry & prose works and articles in the session. Prof. Zafar Ahsan, Prof. Farooq Bakshi, Dr. Shamshul Hoda and Dr. Firoz Alam also spoke.

Shibli Azad, Co-convenor, Bazm-e-Adab convened the session and Convenor, Shaik Asma Imroz proposed vote of thanks.
