Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy-(CSSEIP)

Progress Report

1st April, 2018 to 31st March, 2019

The Centre for the Study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy was established in May 2007 at Maulana Azad National Urdu University – Hyderabad. Its' key objectives include contextualizing and problematizing, while conceptualizing, the exclusion and inclusion existed on the lines of caste/ethnicity and religion, in the society. It also plays a key role in suggesting policy formulations aiming at eradicating the problem of social exclusion and discrimination and protecting the rights of these groups. The Centre has acclaimed its' existence as one of the few such Centres started in India following the UGC's initiative to establish and promote the Centres for study of Social Exclusion and Inclusive Policy during X Plan. Its' activities include, teaching, research and action oriented programmes in collaboration with the reputed bodies and institutions working in the areas of social development among the socially excluded groups.

Evidence in the social history suggests that the social exclusion on the basis of caste, race, religion, gender, etc., generates tension, violence and disruption within a given social structure. A form of alienation where in certain social groups are denied from accessing to the resources - perpetuating inequality and deprivation in society - the systemic exclusion experienced by the Scheduled Castes, Scheduled Tribes and religious minorities in India is one example of social exclusion. It draws special attention and requires focusing upon at the present juncture. In this regard, it is the institutions of higher learning which can address the problem of social exclusion by studying, understanding and transcending the phenomena for policy evolutions on the issues concerning the social exclusion. These kinds of centres will bring together diverse individuals, groups, and institutions to help in understanding the causes and consequences of social exclusion, and suggest remedies to fully include the excluded communities in the process of modernization and development of the country.

The Centre at MANUU aims at studying the nature, extent and forms of social exclusion among some selective socially excluded groups, especially Muslim groups and suggesting theoretical and policy formulations in this regard. The centre's key objectives include conceptualizing discrimination, exclusion and inclusion based on caste/ethnicity and religion; developing understanding of the nature and dynamics of discrimination and exclusion; developing an understanding of discrimination at an empirical level; formulating policies for protecting the rights of these groups and eradicating the problem of exclusion and discrimination. The thrust areas of the Centre are to study religious minorities with specific focus upon the Muslims as a socially excluded group, exclusion of Urdu speaking population, and to study the other excluded groups such as Dalits and tribal communities. In the year 2014, Centre's name was rechristened in the name of Al Beruni (973-1043), the great medieval scholar and historian who worked extensively on Indian social systems and diversity.

International Seminar

The Centre organized one important International Seminar On “Ethnicity and Minority: Debates and Discourse in Contemporary Muslims”, during March 15-16, 2018. This seminar was second international seminar that touches the core area of research intervention of the centre in the last few years. In this seminar, Indian Sociological Society (ISS), New Delhi had agreed to collaborate and few important members of the Sociological fraternity and office bearers attended on behalf of the Research Committee on Minority Studies of ISS. Prof. R. Indira had sent her greetings for the successful conduct of the seminar and also promised to visit MANUU in any future programme. The international delegates from foreign universities and civil society research and activist too joined the seminar to share their experiences while working on ethnic minorities or minorities in India and the world. There were several eminent scholars and researchers from the academia who made the seminar meaningful and academically relevant. The areas of ethnicity and minority studies have been included in the research committee of Indian Sociological Committee, one of the vibrant subject associations in India. The founding convener of the research committee and managing committee member, Prof. Arvidner Ansari, gave her remarks on behalf of the society. Prof. Imtiaz Ahmad, Eminent Scholar was the chief guest and gave significantly guiding lecture for the new researchers and students working in this area of research. The keynote address paper of Rowena Robinson was distributed to the participants for wider outreach and discussion during the seminar. The presence of national and international guest truly made helped the organizer to make this seminar successful and purposeful. The Convener, Dr. K M Ziyauddin and co-convener Dr Mohasina Anjum Ansari gave their brief report of the seminar in the last day of the event. The programme was overall monitored and guided by the director of the seminar Dr. Afroz Alam, who not only kept encouraging the faculty and staff in the preparatory days but he was also engaged at every level of the decision making process.
