MANUU observes Anti-Terrorism Day

Hyderabad:

Maulana Azad National Urdu University (MANUU) observed Anti-Terrorism Day today by administering Anti-Terrorism Pledge online to its faculty members, staff and students. The online pledge ceremony was organized by the NSS Cell of MANUU.

Prof. S M Rahmatullah, Vice Chancellor I/c administered the pledge both in Urdu and English. The participants took the pledge to promote peace, social harmony among human beings and to oppose any kind of violence and terrorism.

According to Prof. Mohammad Fariyad, Programme & NSS Coordinator, anti-terrorism day is being observed as per the guidelines issued by Ministry of Home Affair. He also spoke about the significance of the day and welcomed the participants. Prof. Siddiqui Mohd Mahmood, Registrar I/C and Mr. Meraj Ahmad, Assistant Professor, Dept. of MCJ & Cultural Coordinator were also present.

Large number of students, research scholars, faculty members and staff join the programme online. The Centre for Information Technology, MANUU made arrangements for the online program.
