MANUU to restore shopping complex in Campus

Maulana Azad National Urdu University (MANUU) has decided to open up the shopping complex situated at the heart of it's campus in Gachibowli to facilitate students who are coming back to campus after almost 18 months. University has invited expression of interest from potential vendors to start shops such as stationery & office mart, grocery & provisions, male salon, ladies tailor, beauty parlour, food zone and cafeteria etc. This facility will also be helpful for teaching & non-teaching staff and other residents of the campus.

Prof. Syed Ainul Hasan, Vice-Chancellor, MANUU has expressed keen interest in developing the shopping complex as a part of student welfare measure.

MANUU's Campus Development Committee constituted recently for maintenance and allotment of space in MANUU Campus has recommended to lease out the shopping complex at open air auditorium. Interested commercial entities can apply for allotment of shop till 5th November, 2021, 3.00 pm. Further details are available on university website manuu.edu.in.
