MANUU's HRDC is 3rd best in the Country

Hyderabad:

UGC-Human Resource Development Centre (UGC-HRDC) of Maulana Azad National Urdu University (MANUU) has secured the third position among 66 centers of different universities across the country in the UGC assessment. Scoring a grade of 4.20, MANUU is rated among "high performing" centers only after University of Kerala and Aligarh Muslim University (AMU) with grading of 4.52 and 4.50 respectively.

According to Prof. Tahseen Bilgrami, Director I/c, Centre, the UGC has reviewed the performances of HRDCs of different universities for period of five year from the year 2015-2020 on quantitative and quality parameters. MANUU finds third place and was shortlisted based on self-assessment by each HRDCs and online presentations made before the committee. The UGC classified the centres into four groups - high performers, moderate performers, low performers and non-performers/inadequacy of data. The UGC-HRDC of MANUU has organized 64 programmes during last five years with 3103 participants from various disciplines and different administrative & academic levels were trained, she informed.

Prof. Syed Ainul Hasan, Vice-Chancellor, expressed satisfaction over the achievement and congratulated the centre and described it as a recognition of MANUU's multidisciplinary approach towards higher education. A remarkable honour coinciding with the Silver Jubilee Celebrations of the University, he pointed out.

Prof. S M Rahmatullah, Pro Vice-Chancellor, Prof. Sk. Ishtiaque Ahmed, Registrar also congratulated the MANUU Community specially the faculty & staff of the Centre.
