

Press Release

August 24, 2022

Training programme for TMREIS teachers begins at MANUU

Hyderabad:

The future of the young generation can be shaped through quality education and good training, that's why appropriate training along with effective teaching is essential. These views were expressed by Prof. Syed Ainul Hasan, Vice-Chancellor, Maulana Azad National Urdu University (MANUU) yesterday while delivering the presiding remarks in the inaugural session of twelve day training program being organized for Telangana Minorities Residential Educational Institutions Society (TMREIS) teachers.

Centre for Professional Development of Urdu Medium Teachers (CPDUMT), MANUU is conducting the programme in collaboration with TMREIS.

Mr. B. Shafiullah, Secretary, TMREIS informed that one lakh twenty thousand students from minority communities are getting quality education in these schools. He urged teachers to fulfill their responsibilities as they have been entrusted to shape the future of new generation.

The guest speaker, Mr. MA Lateef, Academic Head, TMREIS said that Telangana Government is spending huge amount for the educational development of minority communities. Students and teachers should make adequate use of it, he advised.

Prof. Mohd Abdul Sami Siddiqui, Director, Centre, briefed about the aims & objectives of the program. Mr. Misbah Anzar, Assistant Professor convened the programme.

Prof. Siddiqui Mohd. Mahmood, Dean, School of Education & Training, Prof. Md. Shahid Raza, Head, Department of Social Work, Prof. Mohd Abdul Sami Siddiqui and Dr. Farhath Ali, Assistant Professor, Department of Education and Training, delivered talks in technical sessions.

(Abid Abdul Wasay)
Public Relations Officer