

Library and Language Lab

Library

The Department of English has a rich library that contains more than five hundred books along with theses and dissertations. It also has a rich treasure of all volumes of MAJELL and other reputed scholarly journals.

Language Lab

The Department of English is equipped with a state-of-the-art language lab that caters to all the needs of the students of phonetics and language acquisition and conversational skills programs. It has 31 modern and updated computers with the latest accessories including smart headphones.