In accordance to IWD 2023 The DWE in association with ICC -MANUU organized a symposium entitled Gender Equality & Protection of Women in Digital Spaces" on 14-03-2023 in SH library Auditorium. Symposium was chaired by Prof. Syed Ainul Hasan, Honourable VC MANUU. Mr. Mohammed Arif Ali Khan, Chief Forensic Analyst, SVP National Police Academy , Prof. Syeda Sameen Fatima, Founder Registrar, Anurag

University and Dr. Farzana Khan, Program Head, My Choice Foundation were the Eminent speakers of the Program. Prof. Gulfishaan Habeeb, Chairperson, Internal Complaints Committee delivered the welcome address. Prof. Ameena Tahseen, Program Coordinator & Head, DWE compered the programme. Dr. Shabana Kesar, Assistant Professor, DWE proposed vote of thanks.

Prof. Ainul Hasan in his presidential remarks said that things are changing very fast in cyber world. We need to be careful in utilizing it in a safe way. Speaking on cyber security he emphasized on making people aware about cyber crimes and the need to protect themselves.

On this occasion Prof. Syeda Sameen Fatima, Founder Registrar, Anurag University expressed her views that “today everyone is active on Social Media as it plays an important role in every life. There are lacuna's in the cyber security system resulting in the increase in cyber crimes specially against fairer sex. While speaking about gender equality, Prof. Sameen Fatima said it includes justice, equal wages and equal opportunities for women in all fields. Majority of the crimes are committed by the close members of the family, She added.

Mr. Mohammed Arif Ali Khan, Chief Forensic Analyst, SVP National Police Academy explained how to implement safety measures to control cyber crimes against women. Online access needs to be secure, he advised.

Dr. Farzana Khan, Program Head, My Choice Foundation in her address said women are lacking in digital world and they are being marginalized in the digital revolution. Now women are being victimized through cyber crimes.

A Cultural Programme Sham-e-Mauseequi (A musical tribute to women) was also organized in the evening. Students took part in this event and presented musical tribute to Women .
