

AMU Alumni Qatar felicitates Prof Syed Ainal Hasan and Asif Azmi

DOHA: The Aligarh Muslim University Alumni Qatar held a special gathering to felicitate Vice Chancellor Prof Syed Ainal Hasan of Urdu University at Hyderabad, and Asif Azmi, at Shezan Restaurant, in Doha.

Asif Azmi is an author, journalist, filmmaker, and Chairman of The Pen Foundation.

Around 20 prominent executives of the AMU Alumni attended with guest Nadeem Mahir. This gathering was an opportunity to recognize the exemplary contributions of the Vice Chancellor in the field of higher education, particularly for his leadership at Urdu University Hyderabad.

Ainal Hasan Sahab has played a pivotal role in advancing the university's mission of promoting Urdu language and literature while providing quality education across disciplines. His visit to Doha was warmly welcomed by the alumni community. In addition, Mr. Asif Azmi was honored for his outstanding contributions as a multifaceted personality - an author, journalist, and filmmaker - who has made a significant impact on literature and media.

Dr. Syed Jaffery President AMUQAQ, praised both dignitaries for their invaluable contributions to society.

Prof. Ainal Hasan and Asif Azmi expressed their gratitude to the Alumni Association for the felicitation and reaffirmed their commitment to fostering educational and cultural ties across borders.
