

Introducing Project A+:

Where Learning Meets Earning!

"Earn While You Learn" Scheme

Maulana Azad National Urdu University (MANUU) and Samana College of Design Studies (SCDS) are proud to announce a groundbreaking collaboration. The launch of a “State-of-the-Art” Textile Production plant, featuring a trendsetting and diverse catalogue of textile designs.

This Initiative opens up an exciting “Earn While You Learn” opportunity for fashion design students, offering them hands-on experience, industry exposure, and a chance to grow as future ready designers while still pursuing their education.

❖ Project A+, the flagship venture under this joint collaboration, has already started making waves!*

As a part of this dynamic project, Fashion Technology second-year students of MANUU have been awarded live production contracts, marking their first step into the real-world fashion Industry.

“Design. Learn. Earn. Empower.”
