Speech Competition

In celebration Azad Day a speech competition was organized on 5th November 2024 on the topic of Preservation of Values and Role of Education. The event provided a platform for participants to express their perspectives on education's role in imbuing values in the individuals and society. It also highlighted the significance of values in today's rapidly changing world and the indispensable role of education in fostering and preserving these values for future generations. The competition witnessed active participation from students across B.Ed. and M.Ed., each participant presented unique perspectives on how education acts as a vehicle for instilling values in society.

The competition was aimed to encourage students to think critically about the values they hold dear and the responsibilities of educational institutions in nurturing these values. In a time of globalization and technological advancement, traditional values are often challenged. This platform enabled participants to voice their opinions on how these values can be preserved while adapting to modern society.

A total of 18 students registered for the event but only 11 participants turn up. Some speakers emphasized cultural values, while others focused on moral values and ethics that shape personal character and social interactions. The panel of judges comprised Dr. Talmeez Fatma Naqvi, Dr. Tarannum Khan and Dr. pravini Pandagle who evaluated speeches based on content, clarity, delivery, and relevance to the theme. Each speech was rated on its understanding of values, the analysis of education's role, originality, and persuasive impact. Participants highlighted that schools play a pivotal role in shaping young minds by teaching values through both formal curricula and extracurricular activities. Many discussed the importance of instilling values like integrity, compassion, and perseverance from a young age, which they argued are essential for personal growth and societal harmony. Some speakers pointed out the challenges that modern educational systems face in imparting values due to diverse cultural backgrounds and the need for inclusivity. Education, they asserted, goes beyond academics and must encompass holistic development, which includes value education as a foundation for ethical decision-making and responsible citizenship.

The event concluded with a motivational speech by Dr. Talmeez Fatma Naqvi who applauded all participants for their thoughtful insights and encouraged them to continue upholding values in their daily lives. The winners were announced based on their articulation, relevance to the theme, and overall impact.

- First Place: Abdullah Ansari B.Ed. 3rd Sem
- Second Place: Mr. Abuzar Ghefari B.Ed. 1st sem
- Third Place: Sadaf Fatma B.Ed. 1st sem

The speech competition on "Preservation of Values and the Role of Education" proved to be a meaningful event, highlighting that education has an undeniable role in preserving values and that students today are keenly aware of their responsibilities toward society. The event was a reminder that values are essential to both personal and societal well-being, and education is the most effective means of ensuring that these values are cherished and upheld across generations.

Report of Debate Competition

A debate competition was organized on 6th November 2024 at Multi-purpose hall, celebrating the legacy of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, a visionary leader, freedom fighter, and India's first Education Minister. The event aimed to highlight his ideals of education, secularism, and nation-building while providing students with a platform to develop their critical thinking and public speaking skills.

The theme of the debate was : “Role of Education in Achieving goas of Viksit Bharat @2047 ”, inspired by Maulana Azad's profound emphasis on education as a tool for empowerment and societal transformation. Nine students have participated in the event. The event was judged by Dr. Pravini Pandagle Assistant Professor CTE Bhopal. Participants passionately expressed their views, presenting well-researched arguments and counterarguments. Some highlighted the transformative role of education in eradicating poverty, while others critiqued gaps in accessibility and policy implementation. The judges commended the participants for their eloquence, research, and clarity of thought, emphasizing the importance of such platforms in shaping future leaders.

After a rigorous evaluation, the winners were announced:

- First Prize: Mr. Abdullah Ansari B.Ed. 3rd semester for his compelling arguments and exceptional delivery.
- Second Prize: Isma Zafar, for her balanced perspective and impactful rebuttals.

The event concluded with a vote of thanks by the organizing committee, appreciating the efforts of participants, teachers, and the audience. The debate competition not only celebrated the ideals of Maulana Azad but also ignited a spark among the youth to contribute meaningfully to the nation's progress through education.

Azad Day Quiz Competition Report – 2024

Date: 8th November 2024, Friday

Time: 11:00 AM

Venue: Multi Purpose Hall

Coordinators: Dr. Sakkeer.v & Dr. Shaikh Irfan Jameel

The Azad Day Quiz Competition 2024 was organized by the college in the occasion of National Education Day to honor the legacy of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, a prominent Indian freedom fighter and the first Minister of Education in independent India. This quiz competition aimed to celebrate his contributions to the nation while also enhancing students' knowledge in key areas. The event was held on 8th November 2024 at 11:00 AM, and it consisted of five exciting and intellectually stimulating rounds, covering a range of topics including current affairs, the National Education Policy (NEP) 2020, Information and Communication Technology (ICT), the life of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad, and cinema and sports.

The competition was designed as a team event, with each team consisting of two members. In total, 10 teams had registered for the quiz, but 7 teams participated in the event. The participating teams were: Team A,C,D,F,G and H

The quiz was structured into five rounds, each designed to test the participants' knowledge in different subjects:

1. Round 1: Current Affairs – This round included questions on Indian History, Indian Polity, Indian Economy, and General Knowledge. It tested the participants' awareness of recent developments and key facts about India's political, historical, and economic landscape.
2. Round 2: National Education Policy (NEP) 2020 – The second round focused on the National Education Policy, a comprehensive framework for the transformation of the Indian education system. The round included questions about the objectives, key features, and expected impact of NEP 2020 on the educational landscape of India.
3. Round 3: Information and Communication Technology (ICT) – The third round tested participants' understanding of ICT concepts, advancements in technology, and its impact on education and society. Questions ranged from basic knowledge to recent trends in technology.
4. Round 4: Life of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad – This round was dedicated to the life and contributions of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad. It focused on his pivotal role in India's independence movement, his vision for education, and his legacy as the first Education Minister of independent India.
5. Round 5: Cinema and Sports – The final round covered questions related to Indian and global cinema, as well as sports. Participants were quizzed on notable personalities, events, and achievements in these two areas.

The competition saw strong participation from the teams and each round was marked by lively debates and intense competition. After several rounds of challenging questions, Team-D emerged as the winner of the Azad Day Quiz Competition 2024. The runners-up and other results were noted, but Team D was declared the most consistent and knowledgeable team across all rounds.

The quiz competition was well-received by all participants. The students displayed a remarkable level of knowledge and enthusiasm across all rounds. The event was engaging and intellectually stimulating, fostering a spirit of healthy competition and learning. The participants answered questions with confidence, and the audience supported their respective teams with great energy.

The organizing team ensured smooth coordination throughout the event, maintaining a steady pace between the rounds. Clear instructions were provided to all teams before each round, and the event was conducted in a timely and efficient manner.

The Azad Day Quiz Competition 2024 was a great success in terms of participation, knowledge sharing, and honoring the legacy of Maulana Abul Kalam Azad. It was an excellent platform for students to showcase their intellectual abilities, and the event contributed to enhancing their awareness in multiple subjects ranging from politics to technology. The competition also served as a reminder of Azad's invaluable contributions to the Indian education system and his vision for the future of the nation.

Congratulate Team “D” for their well-deserved victory and thank all the participating teams for their enthusiasm and sportsmanship. We also extend our gratitude to the audience for their support, and the organizing team for ensuring a smooth and successful event. The competition served as a wonderful learning experience and is expected to inspire more such events in the future.

This street-food favorite brought excitement and fun to the event, with attendees lining up for the tangy, spicy burst of flavors.

Judging Panel:

The dishes were evaluated by a panel of distinguished judges who brought their expertise and keen taste buds to the event. The judging panel included:

- Dr. Talmeez Fatma Naqvi
- Dr. Shabana Ashraf
- Dr. Mohammad Hasan

Their assessment was based on criteria such as taste, presentation, and hygiene.

Winners of the Food Fest:

The culinary skills of the students were recognized and celebrated through a competition, and the top three winners were announced:

- First Position: Biryani prepared by Rashid, Shahid, and Wahid. Their dish was praised for its authentic flavors, perfect balance of spices, and aroma.
- Second Position: Chilli Chicken with Roti prepared by Tarannum Fatma, Sania, and Urooj. This dish stood out for its tender chicken and flavorful combination.

- Third Position: Chole Chaat prepared by Iltija, Sadeka, and Gufrana. The tangy and spicy flavors of their chaat earned them well-deserved applause.

Event Highlights:

The food fest was not just a celebration of taste but also an opportunity for students to bond, collaborate, and showcase their teamwork and organizational skills. Each dish was prepared with great attention to detail, reflecting the dedication and enthusiasm of the participating students. The stalls were adorned with creative decorations that reflected the theme, enhancing the fest's lively atmosphere.

Faculty members, staff, and students enjoyed sampling the wide array of dishes and appreciating the culinary talents of the student chefs. The event concluded with positive feedback from attendees who praised the initiative for promoting cultural appreciation and teamwork.

The 'Khana Khazana' Food Fest successfully embodied the spirit of Azad Day/National Education Day, celebrating the diversity and unity that Maulana Azad himself championed. Under Dr. Tarannum Khan's leadership, the event served as a testament to the campus's commitment to fostering holistic development and community engagement among its students.
