Report 1: Rangoli Making Competition under Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign

The Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign was celebrated with great enthusiasm at MANUU College of Teacher Education, Bhopal, on 14th August 2025. As part of the celebrations, a Rangoli Making Competition was organized under the guidance of Dr. Neeti Dutta and Dr. Tarannum Khan. The competition aimed to instill patriotic fervor and creativity among the student-teachers, while also spreading awareness about national initiatives and achievements.

A total of six groups participated in the event, each presenting their artistic skills through vibrant and meaningful rangolis. The themes chosen by the groups highlighted the essence of national pride, scientific achievements, and self-reliance. Noteworthy among them were “Chandrayaan-3: ISRO's Glory”, “Aatmnirbhar Bharat”, and “Har Ghar Tiranga”. Each rangoli not only showcased creativity but also reflected the spirit of unity, cultural diversity, and India's march toward progress.

The event turned into a lively celebration of colors and patriotism. Students worked with dedication, blending traditional rangoli art with contemporary national themes. The competition provided them with an opportunity to display teamwork, imagination, and national consciousness. The beautifully decorated rangolis transformed the campus into a vibrant canvas of patriotic expression.

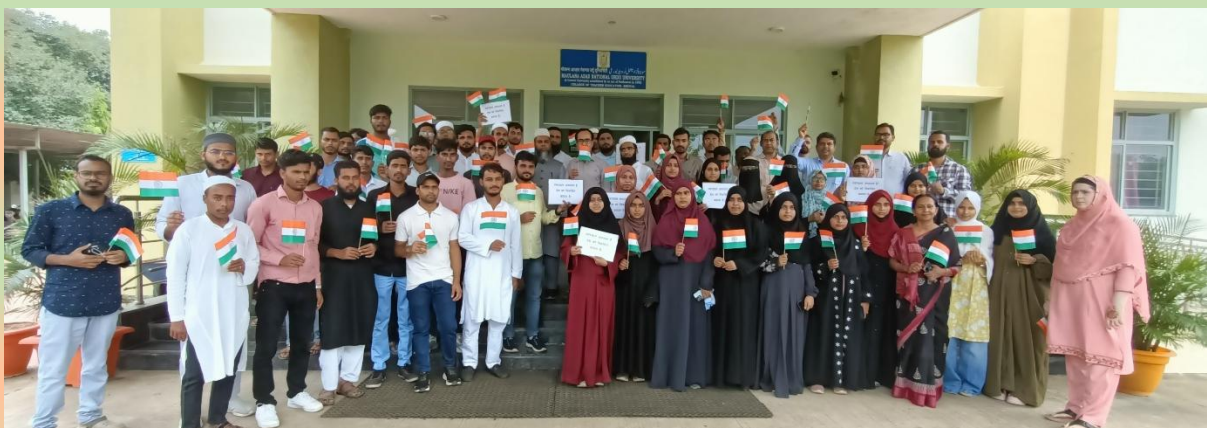

In conclusion, the Rangoli Making Competition successfully merged art with nationalism and played a vital role in motivating student-teachers to cherish the values of freedom, creativity, and collective responsibility towards nation-building.

Report 2: Tiranga Rally under Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign

As part of the Har Ghar Tiranga Campaign, a grand Tiranga Rally was organized at MANUU College of Teacher Education, Bhopal, on 14th August 2025. The rally was coordinated by Dr. Shabana Ashraf and Dr. Indrajeet Dutta, with active participation from faculty members, student-teachers, and staff of the college.

The rally commenced from the college premises, where students carried the National Flag with immense pride and enthusiasm. The slogans of patriotism echoed through the air, filling the environment with energy and dedication. The participants walked in unison to Shanti Nagar Basti, symbolizing the message of inclusivity and spreading awareness about the importance of the National Flag and the spirit of independence. After reaching the basti, the rally returned to the college, marking the successful completion of the event.

The Tiranga Rally aimed to reinforce the values of unity, integrity, and respect for the tricolor. It created a sense of national pride not only among the participants but also among the local residents, who witnessed the rally and appreciated the zeal of the young student-teachers.

This initiative effectively conveyed the message of “Har Ghar Tiranga”—encouraging citizens to hoist the national flag at their homes and celebrate the essence of freedom and sovereignty. The rally was not only a symbol of patriotism but also an educational experience, strengthening the emotional connection of students with the nation.
