Movie Screening

A special movie screening was organised at the newly built lush green college campus on 29th November 2022 with a view to raising awareness about Elimination of Violence Against Women. An hour-long episode on violence against women (part of the ground-breaking documentary-cum-talk show Satyamev Jayate that voiced out strong social messages and touched the lives of many) was screened at the Multipurpose Hall, College of Teacher Education, Bhopal. The screening was attended by all students (B.Ed., M.Ed. & Ph.D.), faculty members and non-teaching staff.

In the episode hosted by Bollywood Actor Aamir Khan, the issue of violence against women in India was discussed and also possible solutions for the same were explored. In the show, Aamir Khan talked to Shanno Begum who had shared her experiences of domestic violence stating that her used to hit her daily. After the death of her husband, Shanno had received driving lessons from Azad Foundation, a non-profit that “equips resource-poor women with skills”, and soon after began driving a taxi. She proudly said, “In the past my father defined my identity. After marriage it was my husband... Now my identity is of a driver.”

The episode was emotionally stirring and impacted the audiences deeply. After the screening was over, many students came forward, shared their views on violence against women and pledged to eliminate violence against women. In addition, a 5-minute video on “Women Safety Begins at Home” was also screened.
