About the Conference:

The conference on "Evolution and Shifts: Emerging Patterns in Literature and Languages" organized by MANUU, Lucknow, aims to explore the dynamic transformations within literary and linguistic landscapes. This event aims to examine how historical, cultural, and technological changes have influenced the structure, themes, and expressions in English language and literature. By exploring the evolution of various literary forms and language usage, the conference will highlight the ongoing shifts that shape contemporary discourse and will provide a platform for scholars, researchers, and pedagogues to discuss and share insights on the intricate patterns driving the continuous evolution of literary and linguistic studies.

About MANUU, Lucknow Satellite Campus

The Lucknow Satellite Campus of Maulana Azad National Urdu University, Hyderabad is located on the banks of river Gomti. It houses four departments: Arabic, English, Persian, and Urdu. These departments offer comprehensive and wholesome UG, PG, and PhD programs, fostering a rich academic environment that promotes linguistic and literary excellence. The various language departments at the Lucknow Satellite Campus emphasize on critical thinking, cultural understanding, and scholarly research. Through a diverse curriculum, students engage with global and regional literary traditions, preparing for careers in academia, writing, and beyond. The holistic approach ensures students are well-equipped to contribute meaningfully to their fields and society at large.

The Department of English at MANUU, Lucknow Satellite Campus is committed to fostering academic excellence and cultural understanding through an in-depth study of English language and literature. Emphasizing critical thinking, creativity, and effective communication, the department offers UG, PG, and PhD programs that explore diverse literary traditions and contemporary linguistic trends. The Department also incorporates emerging trends in English language teaching, equipping students with innovative pedagogical skills and methodologies to excel in modern educational settings. Our vibrant academic environment encourages scholarly inquiry, holistic education, and engagement with global and local perspectives in English language and literature.
