Subject: Syllabus

Dear Sirs,

I am attaching a tentative syllabus and calendar.

Next week I plan to make adjustments after interviews with the students. It seems more PG students are signing up, which means I will likely try to incorporate writing into the course as well. However, first I'd like to speak with students to get a feel for what their needs are.

As Senthil has mentioned, this semester will be somewhat experimental while I try to identify how I can best serve MANUU students.

I look forward to your suggestions.

Kind regards,
Robin
