136	No
137	He is good at explaining the microprocessor subject
138	yes obviously, I want to say if some equipment or practical machine which is available regarding this subject like router and so on then this is very helpful for the student and the subject is very interested if practical equipment is available. ..
139	yes obviously, this subject is very helpful for getting jobs & internship but the time period is very less , so we are not perfectly read this subject .so if there is extra class is there for this subject then this is very helpful forthe student because in my opinion, in my thinking 90%of the student is interested in this subject because they are also focusing on GATE , this is an important subject for gaining more marks in GATE. so in my opinion if the time duration period of this subject is increase or extra class is there for this subject then this is very helpful for the students.
140	Very good
141	He gave studenrts so childish experiments to do.We could also cover some advanced topics which were in the syllabus like interfacing keyboard,seven-segment display,memory to different microprocessors.But the teacher wasted a lot of time in some other activities like underestimating MANUU students.I,openly come up to say with respect that we MANUU students are not dumb and we are not less than any other group of students belonging to other universities he mentioned.
