

AGENDA

Board of Studies in History , MANUU Hyderabad

12th July, 11 AM 2017

Item.1

To consider the proposed syllabus for the Ph.D programme in History from session 2017-18.

Note:

The Ph.D programme is being introduced from the ensuing session 2017-18. The syllabus has been framed keeping in view the limited faculty and course work module prescribed by the UGC for the purpose.

Item.2

To consider the enhancements of seats in the Ph.D Programme considering the large demand and the UGC guidelines both.

Note:

At the moment, only 4 seats are provided for the Ph.D programme. The University has its own limitation in sciences for limited lab. facilities. But, no such facility is required in the social sciences especially History. Further, the enhancement of seats shall be in accordance with UGC guidelines: Professors, Associate Professors and Assistant Professors can guide 8, 6 and 4 candidates respectively at the M.Phil/Ph.D levels.
