At the outset, Principal Prof. Naushad Husain welcomed the members and congratulated the Examination Committee for the efforts they did for the smooth functioning of online exams of 4th semester students. The following agendas were discussed and resolved:

Agenda No. 1: Review of 1st Online Lecture Series

Professor Noushad Husain appreciated the efforts of all faculty members involved in the planning of the online lecture series.

He opened the first agenda of the meeting with acknowledgement that it was not only classroom teaching, but independent and collaborative research and lecture, workshop and discussion on government policies are part of our jobs, too. Other than these, it is equally as important to see the work of other universities and try to improve our own all the same, in terms of national and international rankings. It is, in light of all of these points that college is going to organize an online lecture series on NEP-2020.

He continued by informing the moderators of the series about their respective duties, and the rapporteurs to compile a full-fledged report about the lecture series upon its completion. They were also tasked with ensuring the circulation and wider publicity of the series through newspapers, University News and Urdu Duniya.

The principal appreciated the efforts of the technical team in their work, and asked the technical team to prepare appreciation certificates for the speakers.

Agenda No. 2: Internship of B.Ed. Semester-III Students

Teaching practice and internship In-charge Dr. Afaque Nadeem Khan informed the committee that the preliminary work of the internship is completed, and that he oriented the students about the online teaching practice in simulated conditions. He informed that if some problems may arise, the consultative committee would be informed and appropriate solutions would be found through a meeting.

Agenda No. 3: Planning of Online Workshop/ Seminar

The principal asked the faculty members to propose any ideas for workshops or seminars which college may organize online. A number of faculty members suggested the topics:

WORKSHOP

- MOOC
- MOODLE

- Values Development

Dr. Bhanu Pratap Pritam suggested that a faculty discussion forum may be formed in which the faculty members would help each other improve through sharing their skills in a collaborative way. The faculty members endorsed and appreciated the suggestion, and the Chairperson asked for a proposal to be made Prof. Abdul Raheem and Dr. Bhanu Pritam were given the responsibility of said proposal.

Agenda No. 4: Planning of Internship for M.Ed. IIIrd Semester Students

Dr. Sakkeer In-charge M.Ed. internship informed the committee that students in the third semester have to do an institutional study project along with tool development for their dissertation. An extensive discussion was held on whether the institutional project should be done online in the current condition surrounding the pandemic. A number of suggestions came, and the Chairman of the committee asked the in-charge to do a proper planning concerning internship programme so the modus operandi could be decided in the next meeting. As Dr. Jeena KG was on child care leave Dr Shaikh Irfan Jameel would support the In-charge.

The second activity in the internship programme is tool development. After a discussion, it was decided that Prof. Abdul Raheem will plan and orient the students about the tool development with the help of Khan Shehnaaz Bano, and the concerned supervisor.

Agenda No. 5: Discussion about to Start Journal from MANUU CTE Bhopal

The Chairman of the committee asked the faculty members if it is possible that college may bring out a journal a prospect responded to with enthusiastic agreement. He asked the faculty members to propose a possible name for the journal, and modus operandi. The members of the committee suggested that at first an online peer reviewed bilingual (Urdu and English) and biannual journal may be started from MANUU-CTE, Bhopal. It was decided unanimously that at first permission should be taken from MANUU to start a journal. The Chairman expressed his happiness at members' fervour and informed that at first a guest edition would need to be made to get an ISSN number. A committee was formed to formulate the guidelines and further procedure.
