6 Haroon Khan Sherwani Centre for Deccan Studies (HKCDS) – Established in 2012 - Purpose: The Centre's vision and mission, niche areas of research, and inter-disciplinary focus have been specifically framed keeping in mind the fact that many of these areas have not yet found a place for study in a traditionally constructed framework. Keeping up with the expectations on which the scope of the H.K.Sherwani Centre for Deccan Studies developed and aspiring to redefine established ways of thinking in the Maulana Azad National Urdu University's educational framework, the Centre has before it the task of bringing within its purview, areas of study ranging from the natural sciences to the social sciences and the humanities. The Centre's broad-based, all encompassing scope brings together different disciplines and streams of study—archaeological, historical, geographical, geological, cartographic, administrative, socio-economic, religious, cultural and literary—that will converge to produce healthy academic standards.

POLYTECHNICS – Established in 2008-09 - Purpose: As part of the mandate of the University i.e., to impart education and training in vocational and technical subjects through the medium of Urdu, Polytechnics are established with the aim to churn out technocrats of unparalleled quality and distinct skills who can help advance the nation in technology to immeasurable heights.
