MANUU Students Shine in TGPSC Group-B Services Examination

Maulana Azad National Urdu University (MANUU) is proud to announce the outstanding success of its students in the recently declared results of the Telangana State Public Service Commission (TGPSC) Group B Services Examination. A total of two students from MANUU CSE- RCA have qualified, bringing laurels to the University through their hard work and dedication.

The qualified students have secured ranks in this prestigious exam and are now set to join the administrative services of Telangana, contributing towards public governance and service to society.

Prof. Syed Ainul Hasan, Hon'ble Vice Chancellor and Prof. Ishtiaque Ahmed, Registrar of the University have congratulated the achievers and expressed pride in their accomplishment. He stated that the success of MANUU students in such a competitive examination highlights the University's commitment to academic excellence, quality mentoring, and holistic student development.

Director I/c of Civil Services Coaching Academy, also applauded the students, remarking that their achievement is a result of persistent efforts, faculty guidance, and the supportive environment provided by the University.

The University fraternity extends heartfelt congratulations to the successful candidates and wishes them a bright future in their service for the Nation.
