Abstract: "Woman is an incarnation of 'Shakti'—the Goddess of Power. If she is bestowed with education, India's strength will double. Let the campaign of 'KanyaKelavni' be spread in every home; let the lamp of educating daughters be lit up in every heart"- Narendra Modi

The principle of gender equality is enshrined in the Indian Constitution in its Preamble, Fundamental Rights, Fundamental Duties and Directive Principles. The Constitution not only grants equality to women, but also empowers the state to adopt measures of positive discrimination in favour of women. 'Empowerment' may be described as a process which helps people to assert their control over the factors which affect their lives and developing them as more aware individuals, who are politically active, economically productive and independent and are able to make intelligent discussion in matters that affect them. It is a burning issue all over the world. "Women empowerment" and "women equality with men" is a universal issue. It refers to the creation of an environment for women where they can make decisions of their own for their personal benefits as well as for the society. Present article will discuss about importance and strategies of women empowerment with various initiatives taken by Government of India for empowering women. In the past decades, the health and education levels of women and girls in developing in the country have improved men and boys. INTRODUCTION

The term "empowerment of women" refers to the process of providing power to woman to become free from the control of others, that is, to assume power to control her own life and to determine her own conditions. "empowerment of women" could also be understood as the process of providing equal rights, opportunities, responsibilities and power positions to women so that they are able to play a role on par with men in society.

Women Empowerment refers to increasing and improving the social, economic, political and legal strength of the women, to ensure equal-right to women, and to make them confident enough to claim their rights, such as:

- Determine financial and economic choices,
- Freely live their life with a sense of self-worth, respect and dignity,
- Have equal social status in the society and rights for social and economic justice,
- Have equal rights to participate in social, religious and public activities,
- Have complete control of their life, both within and outside of their home and workplace,
- Get equal opportunity for education & make their own choices and decisions,
- Get equal employment opportunity without any gender bias,
- Get safe and comfortable working environment,

Empowered Women's Characteristics

- Empowered women define their attitude, values and behaviours in relation to their own real interest. They have autonomy because they claim their freedom from existing male hierarchies, whether they live in traditional societies or modern industrial societies.
- Empowered women maintain equal mindedness. They act out roles that challenge male dominance. They respond as equals and co-operate to work towards the common good.
- Empowered women use their talent to live fulfilling lives. They not only survive the harshness of their own subjugation but also transcend their subjugation.
- Empowered women maintain their strength on the face of pressures from the religion and work and contribute towards the empowerment of all women.
- Empowered women define their values and formulate their beliefs themselves, they do not derive their sense of being from male authorities nor do they live vicariously through men.
